About Us

For over five years, we've been committed to excellence and reliability, distributing premium grains from aromatic basmati to versatile non-basmati rice—diverse pulses, and raw makhana in varied packaging. Expanding our horizons, we also offer innovative ready-to-eat nutritional solutions like protein powders and food supplements, alongside the trusted sourcing and trading of hydrous aluminum silicate (Fuller's Earth/Multani Mitti) across India.

Mission

Our mission is to uphold our five-year legacy of quality and reliability by sourcing and delivering premium grains—from aromatic basmati to versatile non-basmati rice—as well as a diverse range of pulses and raw Makhana in varied packaging. We also extend our commitment to excellence by offering innovative, ready-to-eat nutritional solutions and by trading trusted raw materials like hydrous aluminum silicate (Fuller's Earth) across India. Our goal is to consistently enrich our customers' lives through dependable products and outstanding service.

Vision

Our vision is to become India's most trusted and pioneering supplier in the food and nutritional solutions industry, setting the benchmark for quality, innovation, and sustainability. We aspire to transform the way people access premium food ingredients and health products while driving industry advancements and fostering healthier lifestyles across the nation. These statements encapsulate our passion for quality and our unwavering commitment to serve our customers with integrity and innovation.

Indian Spices & Nuts

Indian spices have captivated the world for centuries, treasured for their rich aroma, taste, and tradition. At Solution Agro Impex, we take pride in being trusted exporters and suppliers of premium Indian spices. Sourced directly from dedicated farmers, grower associations, and cooperatives across India, our spices are carefully selected and processed using indigenous methods. This preserves their natural color, flavor, and aroma. We maintain strict quality control at every stage – from sourcing to hygienic packaging – ensuring our spices deliver the essence of freshly ground flavor. Experience the purity, tradition, and authenticity of Indian spices with Solution Agro Impex.

Grains & Pulses

India is the world's leading rice producer, contributing 20% to global production and over 70% of basmati rice. As a staple for two-thirds of the global population, rice is cherished for its nutrition, versatility, and taste. At Solution Agro Impex, we supply premium basmati and non-basmati rice, hygienically processed and packed in PP, BOPP, or jute bags for maximum freshness. We also export a wide range of Indian cereals and pulses like chickpeas, green millet, wheat flour, and yellow maize. Our commitment to quality, competitive pricing, and customer satisfaction makes us a trusted name in global food exports.
